

PRIVACY POLICY FOR NHUM

New Hope Uganda Ministries DOES NOT SHARE our donor information outside of our organization. Your name and contact information is held strictly confidential and is used for internal NHUM purposes only.

What private donor information does NHUM collect?

Our records consist in you name and contact info including email addresses IF provided as well as accounting of your donations. Your information is only shared with those that need access to it to contact you for clarification of a question or donation. Your contact information is only accessible to those authorized by the NHUM board of directors to have access to such information and then only for official NHUM and NHU business.

Your financial records are kept completely private and are seen by the CFO and financial secretary for the purpose of recording your giving. The board of directors and individual missionaries or ministries that you are supporting may also see your giving information but only for clarification of the donation, thank you and planning purposes.

NHUM DOES NOT HOLD DONOR CREDIT CARD INFORMATION. NHUM receives ONLINE GIVING but we do not have access to your credit card information. That is strictly handled by Give Direct, an arm of the Independent Charities of American of which we are a member. Any questions about your online credit card information must be directed to:

Janet Bargewell
GiveDirect Administrator
